Sacred Work

I bring joy and laughter through my work as a healer. We are really not healers all we do is link with each other and connect in Spirit. That is where the healing happens. I gift people a smile and lead them to empower themselves and walk through gateways. Great Spirit has taught me to move energy in a way that allows them to access the healing energy of unconditional love and oneness. When I open my heart Great Spirit and Mother Earth move through me and I focus and guide people to find balance, love and unity within themselves. People need to find the paths that work best for themselves to sustain their healing. People need to bring energy into their lives so they can be happy, healthy and become lightworkers themselves.

My gifts help them to bring light to shadows, movement to worn-out patterns and power to live a good dream. Great Spirit has given me the gift of vision so that I may focus prayer and intent where I find holes. My clients can then use tools to fix themselves and allow the gift of their own holiness to enlighten their spirit. We then work on ways of not leaking energy,

Individual Healing

During sessions we use tools such as, Luminous Fiber work, crystal and stone healing, Hot Rock Massage, Guided Meditations, Reiki and listening to your inner needs. We use Shaman Journeys to connect to your inner domain and bring back symbols and answers that you need. We also work on developing a program that you can use each day to strengthen and build your own pathways to harmony and balance. Guides and power animals play a huge part.
