

Katherine Lewis

Shaman Coach and Body Worker

Hello,

Two is often more powerful than one. With that in mind, I offer shamanic coaching to back and support you on your life's adventure. Having studied and practiced many healing techniques, I draw on Spirit and my experience to motivate and encourage you, whether in creative endeavors or through life challenges. If your intuition is telling you, "Don't go it alone," I'm here; give me a call. You won't regret it.
